No construction on any lot may be commenced without first obtaining said written approval of the Architectural Committee. Once written approval has been obtained, construction on the lot must generally conform to the approved plans\

In the event the Developer or a lot owner shall employ the services of an attorney to enforce any covenant or restriction herein contained, the non-complying lot owner shall be liable for all costs, expenses and attorney's fees incurred by such Developer or lot owner, in order to enforce these covenants and restrictions. Invalidity of any one or more of these restrictions or covenants by judgment or court order shall in no way affect any of the other provisions, which shall remain in full force and effect.

The Developer has the absolute right to waive or release a lot from a particular restriction or covenant, if in the Developers' sole judgment, such a waiver or release is necessary and will not materially damage or diminish the Subdivision. Developer shall have the right to execute and grant such a release or waiver in writing in recordable form.
